Join America's largest sports bar network!

FanWide is America's largest sports bar network and provides services, tech and data for its members. Seattle-based FanWide was established in 2016 and has promoted over 1.5 million game watch parties for 15,000 sports fan communities at 10,500 bars. Almost one thousand bars have joined FanWide to become an Official Bar Partner of the world's leading sports, gambling, beverage and apparel companies.

Sports teams and leagues partner with FanWide to grow their US audience through creating "official" fan engagement events, fan communities and game watch parties. Member bars benefit through exclusive co-branding opportunities to sports fans of major professional and collegiate franchises. We also list your TV sports schedule!

FanWide's member bars get exclusive partnerships, services, discounts and data. FanWide can help independent bars, small chains and national franchises attract new customers and increase sales by automating their marketing to local sports fans.

It is free to join FanWide and list any official sports fan community events. Subscribe to a monthly or annual FanWide Elite membership to get access to all our services. Visit https://fanwi.de/host to sign up for free!

PARTNERS

"We partner with FanWide to stand out from the other bars. We have sold out Super Bowl parties, events for local teams, and launched new fan club chapters. FanWide has helped us find thousands of customers." - Danny Pentin, Owner, Art Marble 21, Seattle WA

"FanWide will make it easy for football fans in any city to find a place that is featuring AFFL games on their TVs. We will give our fans a gameday experience as if they are inside the stadium." - Jeff Lewis, CEO and Founder, American Flag Football League
